

One Window Shop Meetings' Model – successful methodology

Since 2009, the Women's Information Center has been carrying out a project "Women for Equality, Peace and Development in Georgia" (WEPD) together with the TASO Foundation as the implementing partners of the UN Women; the project is supported by the government of Norway. The project is aimed at strengthening the capacities of IDP's and conflict-affected women's groups, as well as other partners from civil society and government to advance gender equality and women's rights in Georgia.

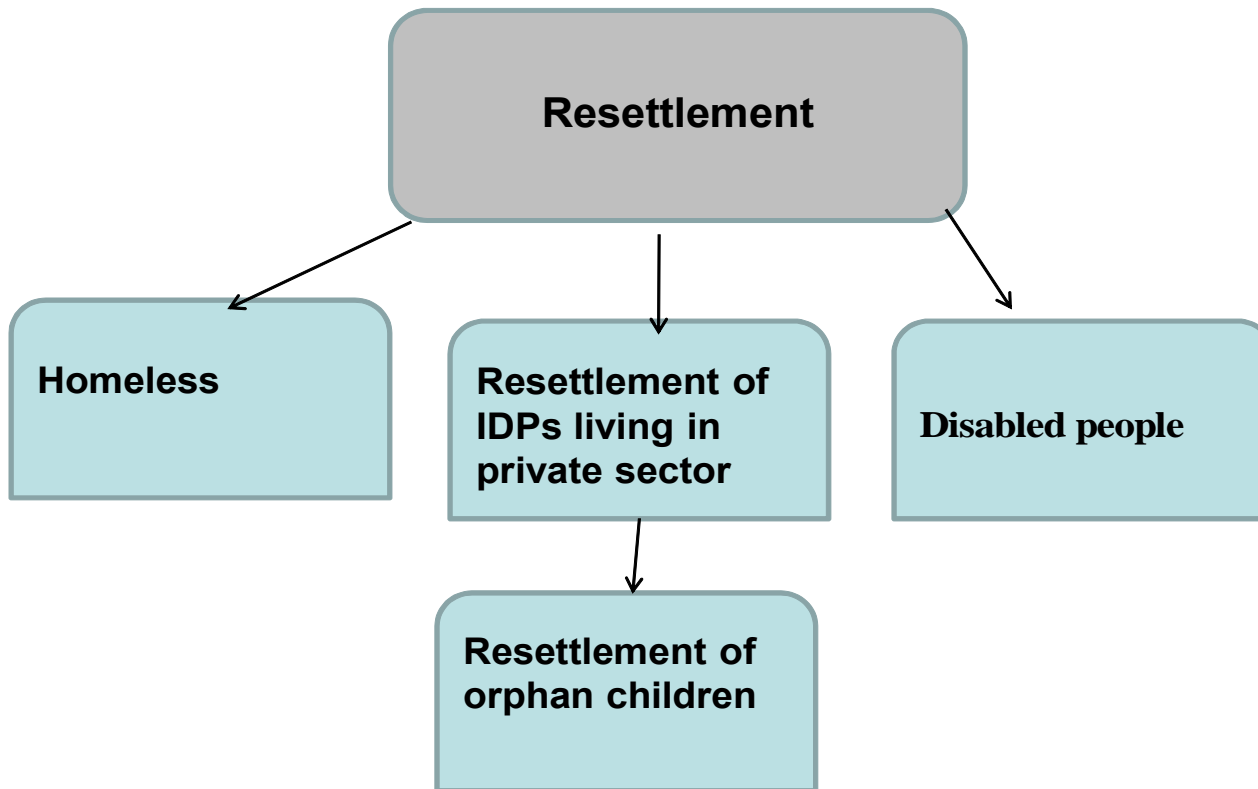

Up to date WIC has discussed 57 cases, out of which

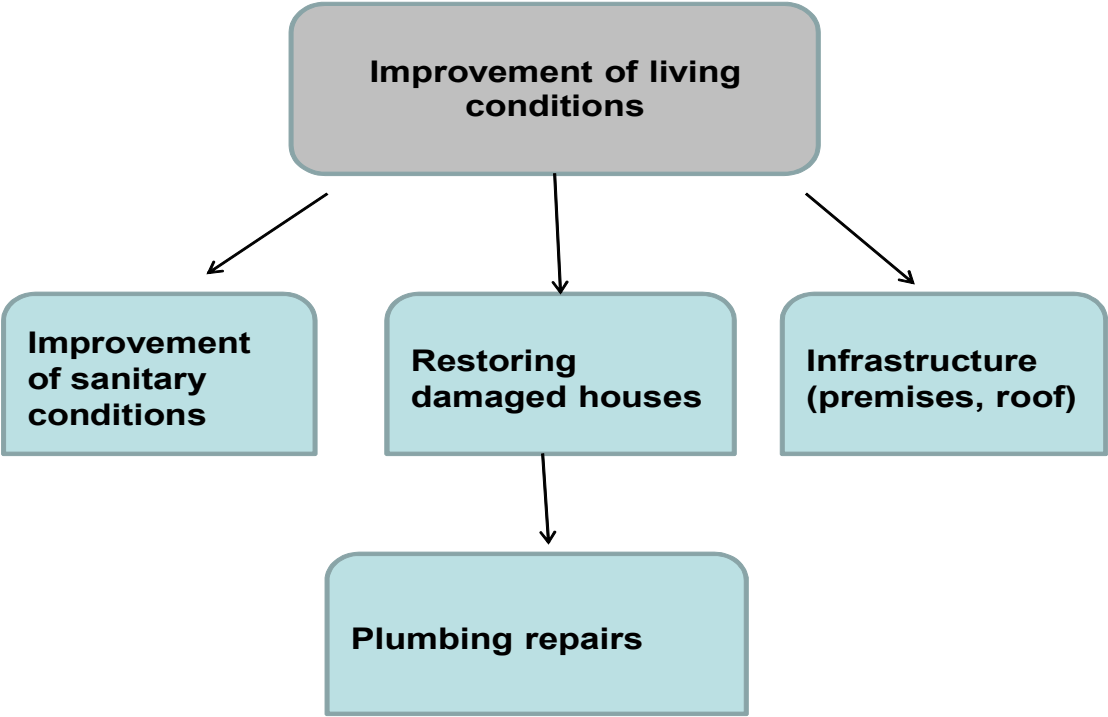

- 26 cases were solved quickly,
- 25 cases are in progress
- 6 – remained unsolved.

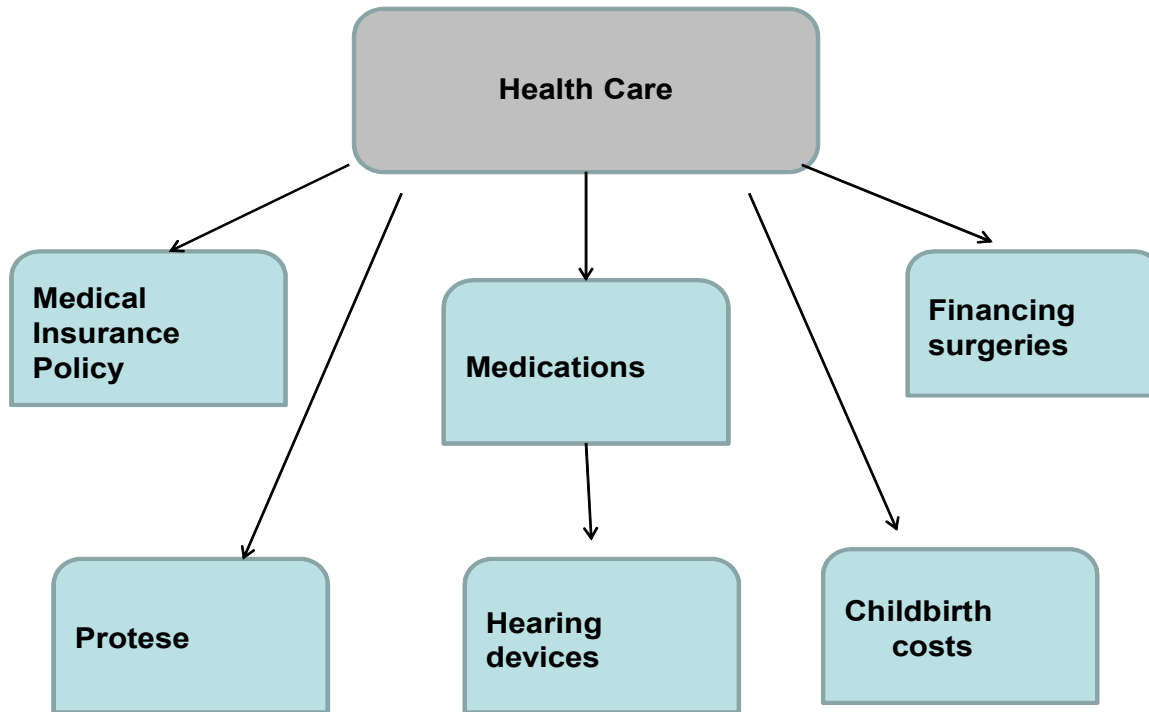

Classification of the target groups of the discussed cases are the following:

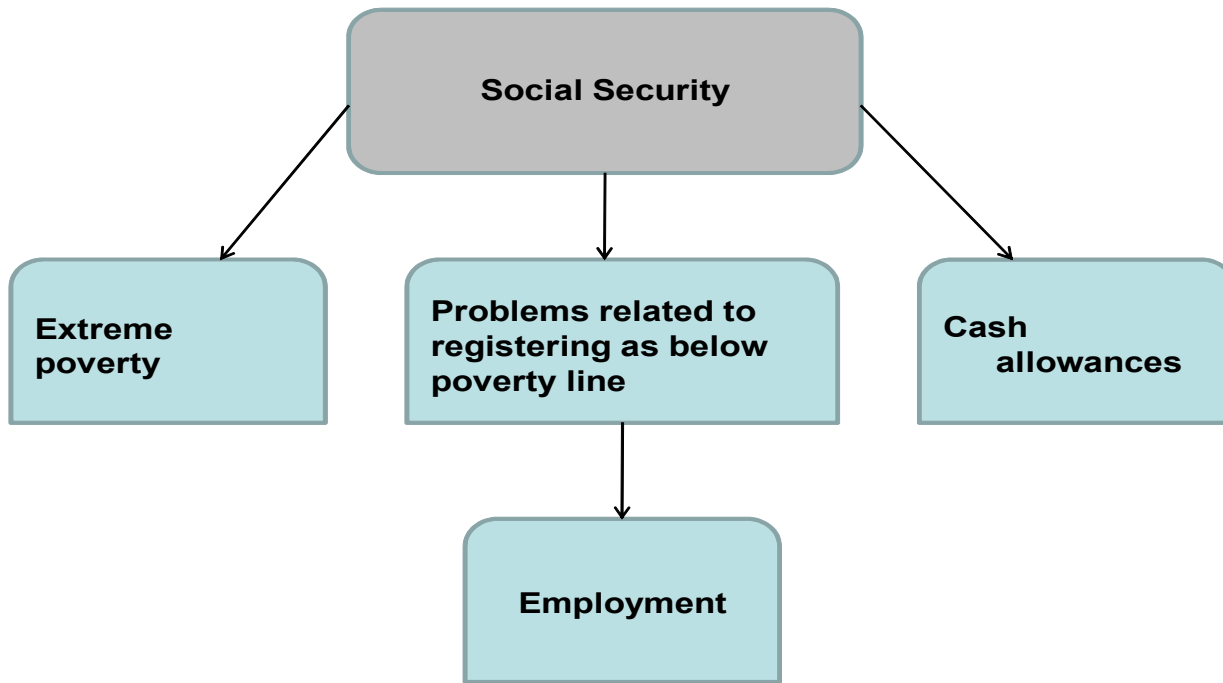

- female – 26,
- male – 5,
- children – 10,
- community – 8,
- families – 8.
